1. The Information Disclosure Statement submitted by Applicants on January 15, 2004 has been received and fully considered.
2. The proposed drawing correction submitted by Applicant on June 2, 2004 has been received and approved.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: ✓

The closest prior art to the present invention is Matsui (U.S. Patent No. 6,404,673). Matsui disclosed a magnetic memory device having a plurality of magnetic memory cells which are laid out along crossing between a plurality of first lines and a plurality of second lines that cross first lines. Matsui failed to show or suggest the combination of a plurality of first and second sense conductors, wherein the second conductors cross the first conductors, a plurality of write rows substantially proximate to and electrically isolated from the first conductor, a plurality of write column substantially proximate to and electrically isolated from the second sense conductors, the write columns transverse the write rows.

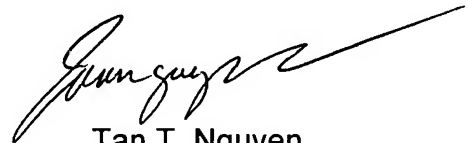

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
